EVANSVILLE RIOTS

Ninth Death as a Result of the Battle Monday Night Occurred Tuesday Night.

THREE MORE CAN NOT SURVIVE.

The City Is Now Under Control of Brig. Gen. W. J. McKee, the Mayor and Safety Committee.

Eight Companies of Militia Are On Duty, Numbering 400 Men, Armed With Rifles, and a Light Battery With Gatling Gun.

Evansville, Ind., July 8.—Frank Lambie, the eighth victim of the battle in front of the county jail Monday night, died Tuesday evening at Gilbert's hospital. Lambie was shot through the back and suffered intense pain until his death. He was 23 years old and a stove moulder by occupation. The ninth death from the riot of Monday night occurred Tuesday night. Charles Taylor, aged 25, was shot in the small of the back. He was an on-looker and did not engage in the attack on the troops. He died in terrible agony. John Barrett and two others are dying from shot wounds received from the volley fired Monday night into the mob.

The city of Evansville is now under the control of Brig. Gen. W. J. McKee and Maj. Charles G. Covere, assisted by a committee of public safety chosen Tuesday evening at a conference. The conference was called by Gen. McKee, who inquired of the mayor what precautions had been taken to prevent a recurrence of Monday night's lawlessness.

Mayor Has Control of City.

Gen. McKee informed the mayor that the state would not assume control of the city until the municipality had exhausted its resources. After a consultation with prominent citizens who attended the meeting, Mayor Covert announced a committee of public safety which will advise him during the trouble.

There are eight companies of militia and one battery here. There are 400 soldiers, all armed with rifles, and a light battery armed with a Gatling gun. The Terre Haute company arrived Tuesday afternoon and relieved the Vincennes and Evansville companies in guarding the jail.

POLICE FORCE INCREASED.

The Military Will Assist the Municipality in Keeping Order.

The committee discussed the situation with the Mayor and Gen. McKee and decided to place the guarding of the city in the hands of Chief of Police Fred Heuke, and to strengthen his regular police force 32 men, making it 100. The military force will assist the police and patrol the city. All persons found on the streets who can not furnish a satisfactory explanation of where they are going will be sent to their homes under guard. The special policemen were sworn in at 8 o'clock and posted on their beats. The plans of the committee on public safety also provided for the relief of all deputy sheriffs appointed by Sheriff Kratz. These men were relieved during the night and their places taken by special policemen. The policemen are armed with shotguns and revolvers and their instructions are to command the people to respect their authority.

More Troops in Readiness.

The governor has in addition to the troops already here 30 additional companies of infantry and two more batteries of artillery ready to be poured into Evansville at a few hours' notice. Ten men, nine of them Negroes, were fined in police court Tuesday $100 and costs each for carrying concealed weapons. The Negro fire company has left the city under advice of the mayor and the places in the department have been filled with white men.

Lee Brown, the Negro who was in jail at Vincennes for safe-keeping, after he had killed Policeman Massey and precipitated the race riots, was Tuesday taken to the state prison at Jeffersonville by Sheriff Summitt by order of Gov. Durbin. The Negro was barely alive and had to be given stimulants and worked with for two hours before he could be taken to the train. The grand jury returned 20 indictments Tuesday against rioters in Monday night's trouble. The capias have not been served and the names of the rioters have not been made public. They are said to be against well-known citizens.

Not a Negro can be seen on the streets, they either being in hiding or having left the city clandestinely.

Henderson, Ky., July 8.—Three hundred Negroes on boats and trains have arrived from Evansville as a result of the race war and riot there.

MRS. BLAINE ILL.

Condition Reported Serious and Her Children Are With Her.

Augusta, Me., July 8.—Mrs. Blaine, widow of the late James G. Blaine, is reported to be seriously ill at her home in this city. Her children, Mrs. Beal, Mrs. Damrosch and James G. Blaine, are with her. Mrs. Blaine has been ill for some time and her condition is due to a general breaking down of the system.

Capt. Joseph N. Hemphill, who is in command of the U. S. battleship Kearsarge, flagship of the European squadron which was entertained by the German fleet at Kiel last week, is an old Ripley boy. He was born and raised in that city. Capt. Hemphill and Admiral Cotton, in command of the fleet, were shown many special courtesies, and dined with Emperor William and other high dignitaries.

Numerous splashes of blood attracted the attention of pedestrians on Third and Sutton streets this morning. At first it was thought a dog had been wounded and had left the marks. Investigation, however, by the BULLETIN scribe disclosed the fact that a negro man was stabbed in the hand last night by some one. He called at Dr. Yazzell's office shortly after midnight to have the cut dressed. The latter was just starting out on another call, and sent the negro to another physician. He didn't learn the man's name, or the particulars. The police are investigating.

River News.

The Keystone State is the next boat for Pittsburg. She leaves Thursday, July 9th.

Another rise is reported at Pittsburg. A stage of twelve feet was expected there Tuesday. A good deal of coal is ready for shipment, but no boats are there to bring it out. Some of the returning steamers may get back in time to bring out tows.

The new towboat Helen White will soon be finished and ready for her first trip. She is a handsome boat, with eighteen inch cylinders and seven-foot stroke, and has four boilers. She was built by White Bros., opposite Sistersville, for use in the Kanawha river.

Captain J. Denver Stout of Charleston is at Marietta where he contracted for the building of a new towboat for the Winifrede Coal Company, to be used in the Kanawha river in place of the John Mackey. Captain Stout will superintend the building of the new boat at the Knox Boat Yards. There are now four boats being built at this yard, more than at any other boat yard in the upper Ohio.

MAYSVILLE, July 7th.—Wheat threshing is in progress and in most instances a fine average is reported.

Miss Sallie McLaughlin, of Cincinnati, is the pleasant guest of her sister, Mrs. Agnes Flanagan, during the heated term.

Men around threshing machines have found the weather almost unendurable for the past week. The heat has been so intense.

Our community was visited "in spots" by a refreshing shower Sunday afternoon. Crops are in a poor condition and the outlook for corn and tobacco is rather hazy to say the least.

Miss Parker, of Orangeburg, was the guest of her relative, Mrs. Clary, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beighle and children returned home from Ohio Monday evening where they went to attend the West Union centennial Saturday. They report a grand time.

Several from here honored the Fourth by attending the Old Settlers' Reunion at Ruggles camp ground, where a large crowd was in attendance equal if not surpassing that of the preceding year, there certainly being no less than 700 vehicles on the ground. The varied program given by the association was interesting and creditably rendered, one of the special features being that of the historic sketch of the Marshall family, read by Mr. Robert Marshall, and dating back into the sixteenth century. The association is promised a similar sketch of the Meas-Barkley family next year. The temperature was rather high, but the abundance of clear cool water and delightful shade made the occasion one of pleasure and enjoyment, except the one sad affair occurring in view of the writer on the way home, Mr. and Mrs. Dud Tolle, an aged and frail couple, being thrown from their chairs backward to the ground by a sudden jostle of the vehicle. They were seriously hurt, and were carried into a nearby dwelling, but the extent of their injury was not known at the time.

"JEFF" HOLIDAY.

Former Maysvillian Fatally Shot at Cincinnati Monday—Pistol User Disappears, But Enquirer Says He Is Known.

[Enquirer, July 7th.]

Charles Holiday, who is better known as "Jeff," is lying at the point of death at the City Hospital from the effects of a bullet wound in the body. He is a member of the contracting firm of Hamer & Holiday, at 315 317-319 East Third street, and was shot on the street at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, in full view of dozens of people. The name of the pistol user is in the possession of Detectives Sweeney and Houillon, and the probability is that he will be arrested this morning.

He is well-known in police circles and his picture adorns the local Bertillon archives.

Whether Holiday was the victim of a plot that savors of the machinations of the Kentucky feudist or was the victim of a drunken man's braggadocio are questions for the police to settle. In either event the shooting was attended with circumstances that are somewhat out of the ordinary.

James Leonard, alias "Dinky," alias "Humpy," who has a handshaking acquaintance with almost every policeman on the force, is locked up at the Hammond Street Station as a witness to the shooting.

Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 Holiday, who is known as a jovial, whole-souled fellow, and who weighs 250 pounds or more, met Leonard on the street and invited him over to McDonough's saloon, on Third street, near Sycamore, to have a drink.

Leonard was refused a drink by the bartender. Holiday and his companion then walked to Shay Bros.' saloon at Front and Sycamore streets, where they had several more drinks. From there they went to Arata's place on Front street, between Broadway and Sycamore streets, and thence to Guynan's saloon on Broadway, near Second street.

Leonard says that in Guynan's saloon they met another young man, who Holiday said was a friend of his, but whose name Leonard says he is not acquainted with. The three started north on the west side of Broadway. Holiday was walking between Leonard on the west and the friend on the east. When the trio reached a point on Broadway about half way between Pearl and Third streets a young man brushed between Holiday and his friend and walked directly in front of Holiday. The latter in his jovial way slapped the stranger on the back and said: "Get out of the way, old man, for we are the people." The stranger turned and said: "Who the h—l are you?" He had no sooner uttered these words than he pulled a forty-two-caliber gun from his pocket and placing the muzzle within three feet of Holiday's body fired two shots. One bullet missed Holiday, but the other lodged just to the right of his breast bone and directly on a line with his heart.

Holiday was able to walk to the office of a physician, who had him removed to the hospital on learning how seriously he was wounded. He claimed Leonard knew the shooter, but the latter denied this. A Mrs. Hamer, widow of a brother of Holiday's partner, is mentioned in connection with the affair. The Enquirer concludes: "There are many peculiar circumstances connected with the affair that have a tendency to show that Holiday was the victim of a plot. Holiday came to this city from Maysville, Ky., a few years ago, and Mrs. Hamer is also a former resident of that little city. It is said that the two were engaged to marry."

Holiday is a son of Mr. James Holiday of the Sixth ward, and is well known in that part of the city.

Burley Tobacco Growers.

[Danville Advocate.]

The books of the Burley Tobacco Association were closed Tuesday and no more stock will be taken, about 90 per cent. of the tobacco acreage in the burley belt having been pledged. Representatives of the association who went East some time since returned with the assurance that when 75 per cent. of the acreage was secured they would furnish all the capital that the association would want. A meeting of the directors will be called at once and arrangements will be made to handle the present growing crop.

A special train of five coaches and baggage car left at 8 o'clock this morning carrying the Sunday schools of Maysville to Park's Hill for their annual outing. The Red Men's Band accompanied them, and a delightful musical treat is in store for all who went on the trip. Maysville has reason to be proud not only of her Sunday schools, but of this splendid band. Considering the time it has been organized, it ranks with the best.

POPE'S CONDITION.

The Pontiff Underwent a Surgical Operation Without Much Apparent Uncomfort.

HIS HOLINESS WAS MUCH RELIEVED

Wednesday Night the Distinguished Patient Fell Into a Slumber Which Was Not Very Peaceful.

The Marvelous Vitality and Recuperative Energy of Pope Leo Were Never So Forcibly Shown as During the Operation.

Rome, July 8.—The marvelous vitality and recuperative energy of the pope was never so forcibly demonstrated as by the series of events preceding, accompanying and following Tuesday's operation. Since Tuesday morning when first informed that the operation would perhaps be necessary, his holiness began to inquire about it. Turning to Dr. Laponi, with his usual familiarity, he asked, "Will it be painful? Remember, I can not stand much pain." Instead of Dr. Laponi, Dr. Mazzoni answered, "I can assure your holiness that you will feel no pain. A little cocaine will deaden all sensation." The pope then concluded, "Then do whatever you think best."

When the operation took place nobody was allowed in the room beside the doctors except Pope Leo's valet, Pio Centra. The doctors, desiring a strong light, had the window widely opened but as it faces the bed the light offended the weak eyes of the pontiff, so that it was thought desirable that he should reverse his position. As soon as this was proposed the pope himself made a movement, showing again that spirit of activity and determination which seems constantly to inspire him. Dr. Mazzoni, however, did not give him time to leave the bed, but taking him in his arms literally turned the pontiff about. Pope Leo smiled and exclaimed, "Bravo, professor. I congratulate you. Although I have become so slight, I must still be rather heavy."

Astonished at His Brightness.

Both the doctors laughed and were at the same time astonished at the brightness of the pontiff when oppressed by a dangerous illness and on the point of undergoing a surgical operation.

Pope Leo remained sitting up in bed during the whole time of the operation without need of support. When Dr. Mazzoni substituted the pravaz needle with a potain aspirator, the pope did not even notice it, going through the whole affair without emitting the slightest lament and without showing any feeling of pain. He was extremely pale, almost diaphanous and somewhat tremulous. As soon as the operation was closed his holiness felt much relieved. His eye from an expression of languid melancholy assumed its usual vivacity, illuminating the emaciated face. Dr. Mazzoni at once administered a cordial which the pontiff took willingly, thanking him with a grateful look for the brave struggle to preserve his life.

Stimulants Administered.

At 2:15 a. m. Wednesday Pope Leo was sleeping, but his head laid uneasy on the pillow. The alleviation brought about by Tuesday's operation of removing the fluid from his pleura was followed later in the evening by a restless period, and fresh doses of chloral, digitalis and caffeine had to be administered. Under their influence the pontiff fell into a slumber, which, however, was not very peaceful on account of the difficulty the patient has in breathing. Dr. Laponi, always at his bedside, the pope just before falling asleep, said kindly to him: "Now, it is your turn to-night. You must sleep."

Throughout the vatican absolute calm prevailed Tuesday night, the excitement of Tuesday having to a great extent died out with the revival of hope after the announcement that Tuesday's operation was attended with success.

The pope on waking at 6:55 Wednesday morning did not speak. He was somewhat irritable, and it seemed as though the blankets and other bedclothes were too heavy, so he kicked them off at the imminent risk of taking a fresh cold, which would be absolutely fatal. The doctors consider that altogether his holiness has had a rather peaceful night.

Left Wife Penniless.

Richmond, Ky., July 8.—Grandville Garrison, who left here over one year ago with another man's wife leaving his own behind, was located Tuesday at Shurlock, O. T. Officers at that place have been wired to arrest him. He is charged with embezzling all of his wife's money and leaving her absolutely penniless with several small children to care for.
